

About the Authors:

Eileen M. Siffermann is an AER Certified Orientation and Mobility Specialist (COMS) as well as a teacher of the visually impaired who received her O&M university preparation and M.A. in 1972 from California State University at Los Angeles and her M.Ed. in 1979 from the University of Arizona, Tucson, in educational administration. Currently, she is in private practice as an orientation and mobility specialist. She previously was employed by the Arizona School for the Blind as the diagnostic O&M specialist and provided direct services to many multiply disabled students.

Annette C. Skellenger is an AER Certified Orientation and Mobility Specialist (COMS). She is an associate professor at Western Michigan University where she directs the dual-preparation program in Teacher of Children with Visual Impairments and Orientation and Mobility. She received her M.A. in 1971 in Blind Rehabilitation from Western Michigan University and her Ed.D. in 1991 from Vanderbilt University in Special Education. She has published a number of articles and chapters on preschool O&M and play. She has practical experience as an O&M specialist and teacher of children with visual impairments in Ohio and Tennessee.

A special thanks to Bruce B. Blasch. Bruce encouraged the writing of this curriculum as well as supported research efforts on the development of an alternative cane. Bruce is an AER Certified Orientation and Mobility Specialist (COMS) who received his M.A. in 1964 from Western Michigan University and his Ph.D. in 1974 from Michigan State University, in special education and perceptual psychology. Since 1986, he has worked as a Senior Research Health Scientist, at the VA Rehabilitation Research and Development Center on Aging in Decatur, Georgia.

